WOMEN'S OWNERSHIP OF ASSETS, INCLUDING LAND
AND HOUSING, HAS THE POTENTIAL TO REDUCE VIOLENCE AGAINST THEM

Why Housing for Women?

-  Lack of ownership of a house leaves a woman with lesser power than a man.
-  Lack of access to housing and gaps in asset ownership and control often lead women and girls to be seen as economic liabilities.
-  Lack of security of land, property and housing has multiple and inter-linking impacts on the lives of women and their children.
-  Lack of access to an alternate housing forces women to stay in violent relationships.
-  Many a time women are forced to leave the house for not bearing a son.
